NEWS ITEMS

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

"If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion". St Maximilian Kolbe.

Mass (booking)

Welcome back to Mass! Naturally, we have some restrictions at these times. Physical distance needs to be maintained, hands should be sanitised upon entry and leaving, and face coverings should be worn (we can provide you with one if you do not have one. Children under 5 do not have to wear one). We do not anticipate any problems with numbers at Mass during the week. However, we need to restrict numbers at the Sunday Masses to 50 max in St James' (with overflow into the hall, live-feed) and 35 max in Crail.

In order to help us organise things safely and well for the Sunday Masses, it would be very helpful if parishioners/visitors book a place online in advance using the Eventbrite links below or by contacting the parish priest by phone/email. Please remember that people from the same household can sit on the same pew. If you are on your own, please sit near the wall to allow room for another person at the other end of the pew.

For communion time, we advise anyone coming forward for Holy Communion to then exit the church through our sacristy/tea room and then re-enter the church through the front door for the final blessing. This will create a one way system which gets around the difficulty of only having one, central aisle in our churches.

There may well be teething problems but we will do our very best to welcome you back to Holy Mass in an environment which is both sacred and safe. Finally, please do not be offended if we simply cannot allow you in. However, we will do our very best to avoid this. The Sunday 5pm Mass has been quiet so far.

Confession

Fr Cannon is available for confession at the normal times in the confessional (sacristy with screen) or outside by appointment if preferred. If coming to the confessional, penitents are requested to use a sanitising wipe upon departure to clean any areas they may have touched, then deposit the wipe in the bin at the back of the church.

All items to be included in next week's newsletter should reach the parish office by Thursday, 10.00 am at the latest.

Visiting Priest – Fr Aidan Cannon

Fr Galbraith will be away on a two week break from 3 August. Fr Aidan Cannon is supplying during this time. Please do make him welcome.

200 Club

The lucky winner of the August draw was Kevin Conlan with ticket number 108, winning £790. As, for a number of reasons, we have lost some of our members from last year, we are looking for new members to help us realise our target of 200. Should you feel able to support the parish in this way, the relevant forms can be downloaded here: <http://www.stjamesparishstandrews.org.uk/200-club/> If you have any queries please contact us at stjames200club@gmail.com

Volunteers – Thank you

Thank you to all those volunteers who are helping to sanitise our churches for Mass, your service is invaluable. More volunteers would be very much appreciated. Please sign up to a slot at the following link: <http://signup.com/go/qXAzDAK> Volunteers should complete the relevant forms: for existing volunteers (Volunteer Form A) or new volunteers (Volunteer Form B). The forms can be found here: <https://www.bcos.org.uk/COVID19/tabid/127/Default.aspx>

No Monday evening Mass or Prayer Time in Crail

Please note that for the remaining holiday period, there will be no second Mass in Crail in the evening or prayer time. Thank you to all those who have been willing to assist sanitise the church at these times.

Children's Liturgy

The Archdiocese has been very forward thinking and has put resources available online for parents to use with their own children for a 'Sunday Mass'. Just follow the link: <https://archedinburgh.org/childrens-liturgy-at-home-latest-resources-for-sunday-3/?fbclid=IwAR0SFe91Hmv5h3rUDFlisS0e2ZDkuHataRveA11gYGXDKyCxLeMFeOYVMmc>

Mass Intentions

If you wish to have Mass offered for a loved one or particular intention, please just post them to Fr Galbraith at the address above or put them through the letter box while out for a walk.

Children's Art bags

Looking for help with children's liturgy? We have a parishioner who is kindly offering free Art Bags (bags with pens, pencils etc – all the things a child needs to draw and colour in their process of learning). If you would like one of these for your child, just email the parish and we will have one available for you at the times the church is open.

Parish finances and coronavirus

Thank you to all those who have very generously given to the parish over the last few weeks in a time of difficulty for everyone. Please, if you are adversely financially affected at this time, do not feel obliged to give to the parish. A lot of people are financially suffering at this time and many will be losing their jobs or at least being furloughed. However, if you are able and do wish to give, there are various ways of doing so. The best way is probably through Standing Order. You can download the form here:

<http://www.stjamesparishstandrews.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/04/Parish-Standing-Order-Form.pdf>

The forms should be sent to your bank, not the parish. Alternatively, you can donate using electronic banking. The Parish account details are:

Sort Code: 80-09-55

Account Number: 00778079

Account name: Archdiocese of St Andrews & Edinburgh – St James' Catholic Ch

Finally, you can also donate via a new, secure online link here:

SICK & HOUSEBOUND OF THE PARISH

Please keep in your prayers: Eileen Wallace. If you wish to have a family member's name published online here, the next of kin will have to send express permission via email to the parish address. This is due to GDPR (data protection rules).

CANMORE CHAPLAINCY FOR UNIVERSITY CATHOLICS

Donating to Canmore

Sometimes very kind people ask if there is a way of donating to Canmore as they know we run on a shoestring budget with little funds. You can now do so online by visiting the Archdiocese Donate page. The link is below. But above all we appreciate your support in prayer.

Some D.I.Y. Renovations

As you may have seen on our facebook posts for Canmore, Fr Galbraith and seminarian Joshua Moir have been using the phase 3 lockdown period to carry out painting and decorating within Canmore. The Front Room has been painted, the Lounge rearranged with new furniture, the kitchens have all been cleaned out and sanitised, the chaplain's room has been painted, as has the library, and the chapel has had a substantial makeover. Check it out on the facebook page. We hope you like the changes.
