Mass (booking)

We would be grateful, where possible, if people would book for Sunday Masses online via Eventbrite. We will do our very best not to turn people away at the door but will try to give priority to those who have booked or elderly/non-online regular parishioners.

Confession

Fr Galbraith is available for confession at the normal times in the confessional (sacristy with screen) or outside by appointment if preferred. If coming to the confessional, penitents are requested to use a sanitising wipe upon departure to clean any areas they may have touched, then deposit the wipe in the bin at the back of the church.

Faith Enquiry

Are you interested in becoming a Catholic or desiring to know more about the Catholic Faith? Our Faith Enquiry classes (RCIA) take place on Monday evenings, 7:30pm. The Scottish Bishops have confirmed that we are now permitted to have small classes indoors for the purposes of teaching. Therefore, these classes will take place in Canmore. If you are interested, please let Fr Galbraith know by email at the parish email address above.

First Communions

Regarding First Communions, the Archbishop is keen that we proceed with these as soon as possible and certainly before Christmas. To this end, the majority of parents have opted for smaller celebrations of 2-3 children at a time on a Saturday morning at the Saturday morning Mass of 9:30am. The dates will be: 10, 17, 24, 31 of October and 7 November. Please keep in your prayers the children who will receive their First Holy Communion on the above dates. As advertised in the weekly newsletter from 30 August asking parents to email the parish to indicate their preferred date, if you have not already done so, please email straight away. A list of dates chosen so far of further availability can be seen on the notice board at the back of the church.

All items to be included in next week's newsletter should reach the parish office by Thursday, 10.00 am at the latest.

200 Club

The winning number last week was 055. As, for a number of reasons, we have lost some of our members from last year, we are looking for new members to help us realise our target of 200. Should you feel able to support the parish in this way, the relevant forms can be downloaded here:

<http://www.stjamesparishstandrews.org.uk/200-club/> If you have any queries please contact us at stjames200club@gmail.com

Children's Liturgy

The Archdiocese has been very forward thinking and has put resources available online for parents to use with their own children for a 'Sunday Mass'. Just follow the link: <https://archedinburgh.org/childrens-liturgy-at-home-latest-resources-for-sunday-3/?fbclid=IwAR0SFe91Hmv5h3rUDFLiSsQe2ZDkuHATaRyeA11gYGXDKyCxLeMEeOYVMmc>

Parish finances and coronavirus

As with many businesses and individuals, Lockdown has had serious financial repercussions for the Church at large and our parish. To date, as of this time last year, parish income has decreased by 59%. If you are able to give by standing order it would be greatly appreciated.

The form should be sent to your bank, not the parish. Alternatively, you can donate using electronic banking. The Parish account details are:
