Summer Canmore Appeal – 2026

This week we begin our summer fundraising appeal for the finishing works on Canmore – the Chaplaincy for University Catholics – and I am delighted to share with you that Mr and Mrs Peacock who are major donors to the University, (John was a student here at the same time as me! [i.e. when dinosaurs still roamed the earth – ed!]), have agreed to match fund our efforts to the tune of £20,000. This is fantastic news and means that anything that you donate or that we make over the next 10 weeks will be doubled! The Second Collection today will be for this Canmore Renovation Appeal.

And then on 10 July we will have our...

Fundraising Parish Wine Tasting Evening

This will take place at 7pm in Holy Trinity Church Hall and will be led by Peter Wood of the St. Andrews Wine Company. The evening will take the form of a wine and cheese event at which Peter will introduce us to a series of delicious wines along the theme of “A Guide to the Grape”. Tickets are on sale after all Masses today. Please think about coming along – it will be a great evening, with live music, great chat and lots of lovely wine.

Solemn Opening of Canmore - Friday 4 September

And just a date for your diaries... the Archbishop and the Principal will both be attending an official re-opening on Friday 4 September. I am organising this reception primarily for parishioners and donors (i.e. not for students!) – so please do put the date in your diaries and come along to see and get a sense of the place.

200 Club

This month's lucky £750 prize winner is Helen Mortlock, St Andrews with ticket no. 037. Well done!!

Sick List

Please pray for the sick and housebound of our parish: Christine Greer, Moira Mullins, Andrew Muir, Isobel Dougan, Joan Dolan, Philip Lawson, Ann Taylor, Marysia Denyer, Harry Graham, Anna Graham.

CHAPLAINCY NOTICES

Faith Summer Session – 27-31 July 2026

This event is a five-day conference organised for young people between the ages of 16-30. The conference happens at Ampleforth Abbey, near York and attracts young Catholics from all over Britain. The format of five days provides an excellent balance of social, spiritual and catechetical activities. It is a great experience and those who attend usually love it and return year after year.

I will be taking a group from the Parish and Chaplaincy to this event. If you would like to come or would like to know more information, please speak to me. Leaflets with more information are available at the back of the church.

OTHER NOTICES

Visit of relics of St Gerard Majella

The relics of St Gerard Majella will be at St Patrick's Church, The Cowgate, Edinburgh, on Saturday 18 July. Entrance of the relics at 10am with devotions and talk, Exposition of Blessed Sacrament at 11:30am. Mass at 12:30pm followed by blessings with the relics.

Consultation

Archbishop Cushley invites you to respond to consultation questions from the Bishops' Conference of Scotland regarding the structures of the Church in Scotland. The consultation questions are online at: bit.ly/archconsultation26. For context, please see the BCOS statement at: bit.ly/bcosstatement. Responses must be submitted by Friday 26 June.

Encountering Jesus, Touching God

Are you a new Catholic, or simply wish to renew your faith? On Saturday 20 June come to a retreat day at The Gillis Centre, 100 Strathearn Road, Edinburgh, EH9 1BB. Special guest is Fr Lawrence Lew, global Promoter General for the Holy Rosary. This Archdiocesan event includes Mass with Archbishop Cushley, short talks, and time for prayer and confession (four priests available). Register at bit.ly/newcatholicsretreat

Annual Caritas, Justice & Peace Mass

The annual Caritas, Justice & Peace Mass takes place at St Peter's Church, 9 Carmondean Centre Road, Deans, Livingston, EH54 8PT, at 7pm on Thursday 18 June 2026. Guest speaker is Peter Diamond from Aid to the Church in Need. The latest Justice & Peace Scotland newsletter is available at: www.justiceandpeacescotland.org.uk

Brecbannoch Pilgrimage 2026

A pilgrimage to pray for the renewal of the Faith in Scotland. Join the pilgrimage from 31 July to 3 August with a walk across the Isle of Mull, returning the relics of St Columba to Iona. Discounts are available for students and under-22s, and under-5s go free. For more information and to register visit brecbannoch.co.uk

A Tainted Legacy

A member of L'Arche reflects on the legacy of Jean Vanier at 7:30pm on Wednesday 24 June at Newington Trinity Church, 18 West Mayfield, Edinburgh, EH9 1TQ. Entry by donation (suggested £5). Organised by The Newman Association Edinburgh Circle.

Christian Heritage Centre Theological Course - Free Will & Grace - 28-31 August

Join the Christian Heritage Centre at Stonyhurst for a theological and philosophical deep dive on one of the great themes of the Christian Faith: human freedom and Divine grace. With lectures and workshops building on St Thomas Aquinas' writings, the course will also explore questions of conscience and the problem of evil. This year's guest speaker will be Rev Dr Simon Gainé, OP. For more information visit: <https://christianheritagecentre.com/events/free-will-grace-course/>

Have a great week.
God Bless.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY MASS

First Reading

Exodus 19:2-6a

In those days: The people of Israel came into the wilderness of Sinai, and they encamped in the wilderness. There Israel encamped before the mountain, while Moses went up to God. The LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the people of Israel: "You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession among all peoples, for all the earth is mine; and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."' '

Response to the Psalm: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Second Reading

Romans 5:6-11

Brothers and Sisters: While we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person — though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die — but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Gospel

Matthew 9:36-10:8

At that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. The names of the twelve Apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.'
