Adoration Quote

*"O amazing splendour! O astounding condescension!
 O sublime humility! O humble sublimity! God Himself

 Himself for our salvation under the appearance of bread." St Francis of Assisi 1181-1226AD*

First Holy Communions

These will take place on the Saturdays of 22 and 29 May, 10am, replacing the 9.30am Mass and Confessions. Only the children, family members, teachers etc will be permitted to attend, due to Covid regulations. Some practical matters for parents to consider are as follows, but please be aware that there may be some fluidity to the regulations by then:

All items to be included in next week's newsletter should reach the parish office by Thursday, 10.00 am at the latest.

- We are limited to around 60 people due to social distancing (as of 26 April): around 50 in the main church, a few others in the tower/hall.
- Limit the family group to around 10 members, including your child making her/his First Communion.
- Children under 5 years of age do not count as part of the 60.
- There is no need to socially distance if you are of one household.
- Sanitisation of hands and face coverings will be required as per national guidelines.
- Please give some track and trace details upon arrival.
- You shall be ascribed 2 pews per family (please allow others to join your second pew if space allows).
- Please seat your child at the end of the pew for easy access/exit.
- The Children will make their First Holy Communion one by one (returning to their place before the next child comes forward); after which, the adults will come forward, starting from the back of the church and using our 'one-way system' of exiting the church via the sacristy and then re-entering through the front door.
- Dress Code: it is traditional for girls to wear Holy Communion dresses and boys to wear a suit, kilt or other formal dress relating to one's cultural background. All are acceptable. If in doubt, please contact Fr Galbraith
- Photographs: the children form one 'household' according to school regulations and do not have to socially distance among themselves. A group photograph in the garden beforehand will be taken, but please follow social distancing regulations outside in the garden afterwards if you are taking photographs and interacting with others.
- Sadly, we will obviously not be able to have our First Communion Breakfast in the Hall afterwards. However, please do celebrate as best you can with your own families, in accordance with the laws/regulations at that time.
